INTERNATIONAL ACCOUNTING DAY

Commerce department organized International Accounting Day In the college on 10 -11 – 2022

Importance of International Accounting Day:

- ❖ While accounting may seem like a boring profession, it's vital to every business out there. Without accountants, people won't get paid promptly nor be able to understand their debits and credits. Even with an accountant, these can still be hard to understand. Accounting is work that isn't something many people enjoy.
- ❖ Accountants enjoy the prospects of so much that they form their whole career around managing numbers and company finances. That's why, for those mathematicians out there in the industry, there is International Accounting Day to celebrate!

Objectives of International Accounting Day

- ❖ International Accounting Day is all about promoting the accounting profession. It seeks to give people the opportunity to network among their colleagues and aims to provide the opportunity to continue education for those interested in the industry.

- ❖ It is also a great day to celebrate the role of an accountant. After all, no matter whether you run your own business or you are a sole trader, it is likely that you have required the services of an accountant at some point or that you will need their services in the future. From filing tax returns to ensuring business accounts are up-to-date; accounts play a critical role in the financial security of companies all over the world.

- ❖ Of course, International Accounting Day is not only about those who are already in the profession, but it is also a day that is important for anyone who is looking to get involved in the accounting industry. There are a lot of great opportunities in this industry, and there is always going to be the need for accountants, so this is certainly a good sector to get involved in. Some of the skills that are required in order to become an accountant include:

Proficiency in IT

Interpersonal and communication skills

Team working ability

Ability to manage deadlines and organizational skills

Business interest and acumen

Ability to reflect on your own work, as well as the broader consequences of financial decisions

Integrity

Self-motivation

If this sounds like you, there are a number of different ways to get involved in accounting, from taking a degree at university to doing an apprenticeship. Take some time to research the options out there and plot your route to the top!

History of International Accounting Day

International Accounting Day was first held in 1972 by the San Diego chapter of the California Society of CPA's. Some remember the Institute of Management Accountants as the original organizers of the event.

Nevertheless, it was created to help inspire younger generations into an accounting career. In 1976, other organizations were invited to celebrate the holiday and International Accounting Day became an official holiday celebrated everywhere. While accounting has a longer history than its holiday, it deserved to have its own holiday.

Principal, Staff and Students participated in the programme

Principal Dr.S.L.B.Sankar Sharma Garu told that the Today International Accounting Day is operated by the Accounting Education Institute. International Accounting Day provides plenty of networking opportunities, giving people a chance to have educational opportunities in the fields of accounting and finance.

IQSC Co-Ordinator Dr.V.Raja Garu told that The AEI contributes to many scholarship funds for major universities and works with them getting college students into accounting. They also help them get real-world applications for job opportunities.
